Meet Andy ⟶

Dank Studio

Andy is the competitor down the street. The one you think of when a lead goes quiet.

Andy isn't better than you.

Andy is just easier to find.

Andy isn't real... yet he is still getting your calls.

Andy just does five boring things you haven't got round to yet.

- [x] Andy says it in one line.
- [x] Google can read Andy.
- [x] ChatGPT knows Andy's name.
- [x] Andy's site loads first.
- [x] Andy never stopped.

None of it is magic. All of it is fixable.

Overheard.

(Not real quotes. Painfully plausible.)

“Have you tried Andy?”

“I just went with Andy. Andy came up first.”

“Andy's site actually told me what Andy does.”

“ChatGPT said Andy.”
